The Cambridge B2 First Exam (formerly known as the FCE) is recognized around the world as a reliable indicator of English proficiency. Testing all aspects of English ability, the exam is your opportunity to prove you can succeed in an English-speaking environment. This program includes training in all aspects of the test: taking part in mock conversation and discussions, practice in writing in varied formats, listening to real-world English in diverse contexts and understanding a variety of written texts. You'll also get motivated to practice your English on our varied activities, from tours of New York University and Columbia University to a visit to the Metropolitan Museum of Art.
